AD/AA-1/6 Control Surface Bearing Support - Inspection 6/2009

Requirement: CANCELLED.

This AD is cancelled on 4 June 2009.

Background: This AD, issued in 1972, required inspection of the control surface bearing supports in accordance with American Aviation SB No. 126 to ensure the assemblies were properly machined and assembled. The AD compliance was before the issue of a Certificate of Airworthiness. As all aircraft would have been inspected, this AD is no longer required.
